

1968-1969

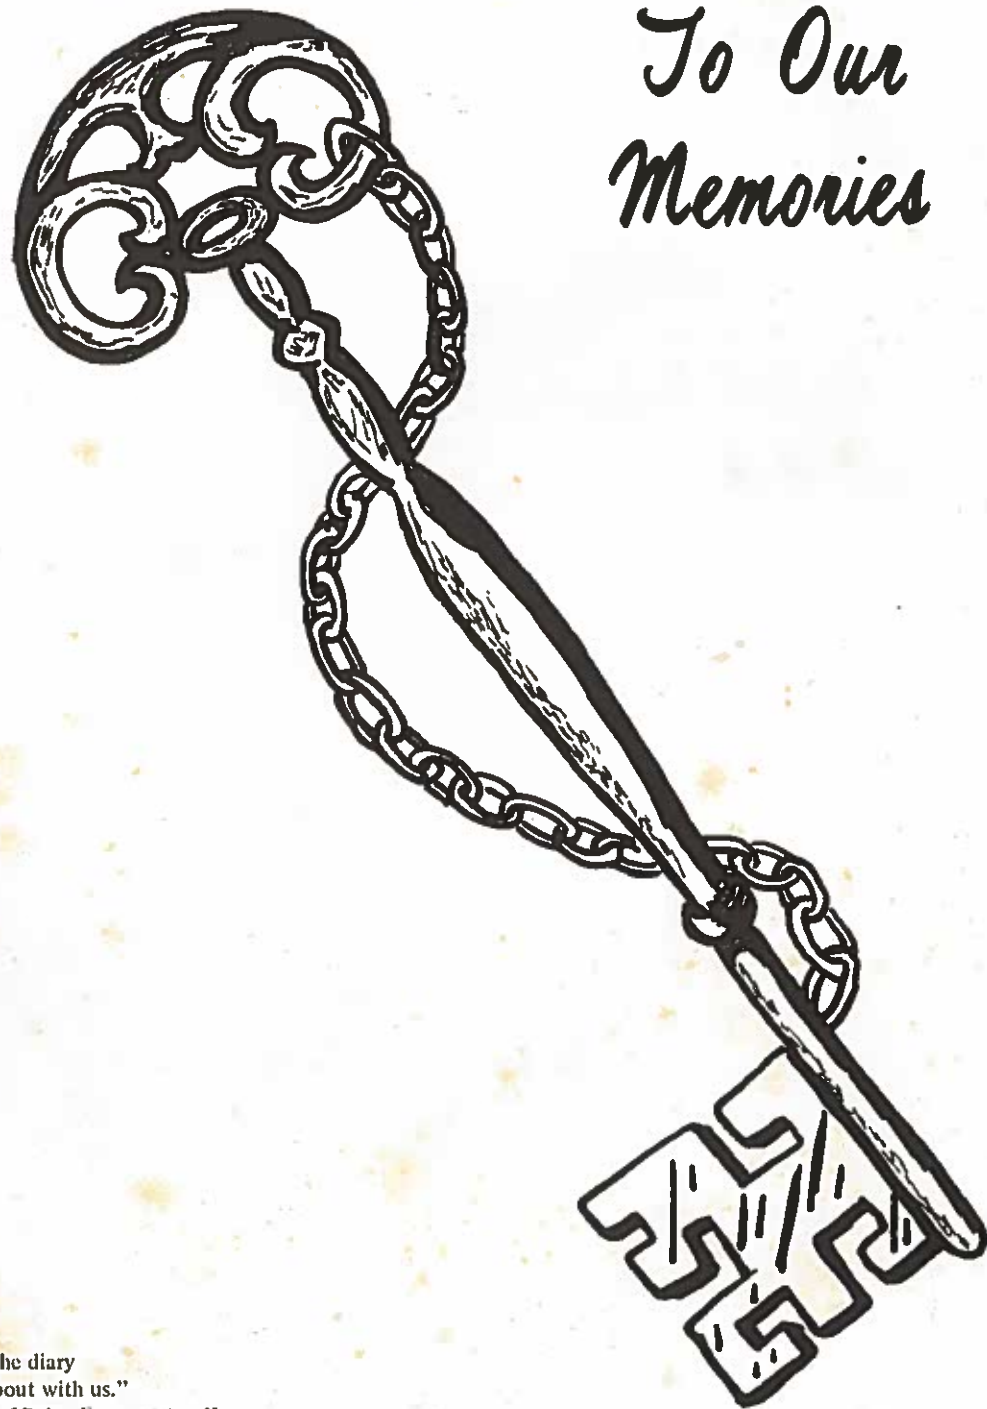

Eagle

In this yearbook, we shall use the keys which we have obtained during our high school years to unlock the diary of our memories. We have sought to preserve the memories of the 1968-69 school year. We hope that each student here at Belvoir-Falkland High School will find a special memory to carry through life with him.

This Is The Key To Our Memories

"Memory is the diary
that we all carry about with us."
The Importance of Being Earnest. Act II.

Dedication

In dedicating the 1968-69 Eagle, our memory reflects our past high school years. We recall one who has been a great inspiration to our lives. He has expressed qualities of leadership by being the sponsor of the Future Farmers of America, Coach of the girls' basketball team, and Boy Scout Master. As a token of our appreciation for helping to mold our lives, we, the Senior Class, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Eugene James.

"Fight the good fight." I Tim. 6:12

"Rich in good works." I Tim. 6:18

In Appreciation

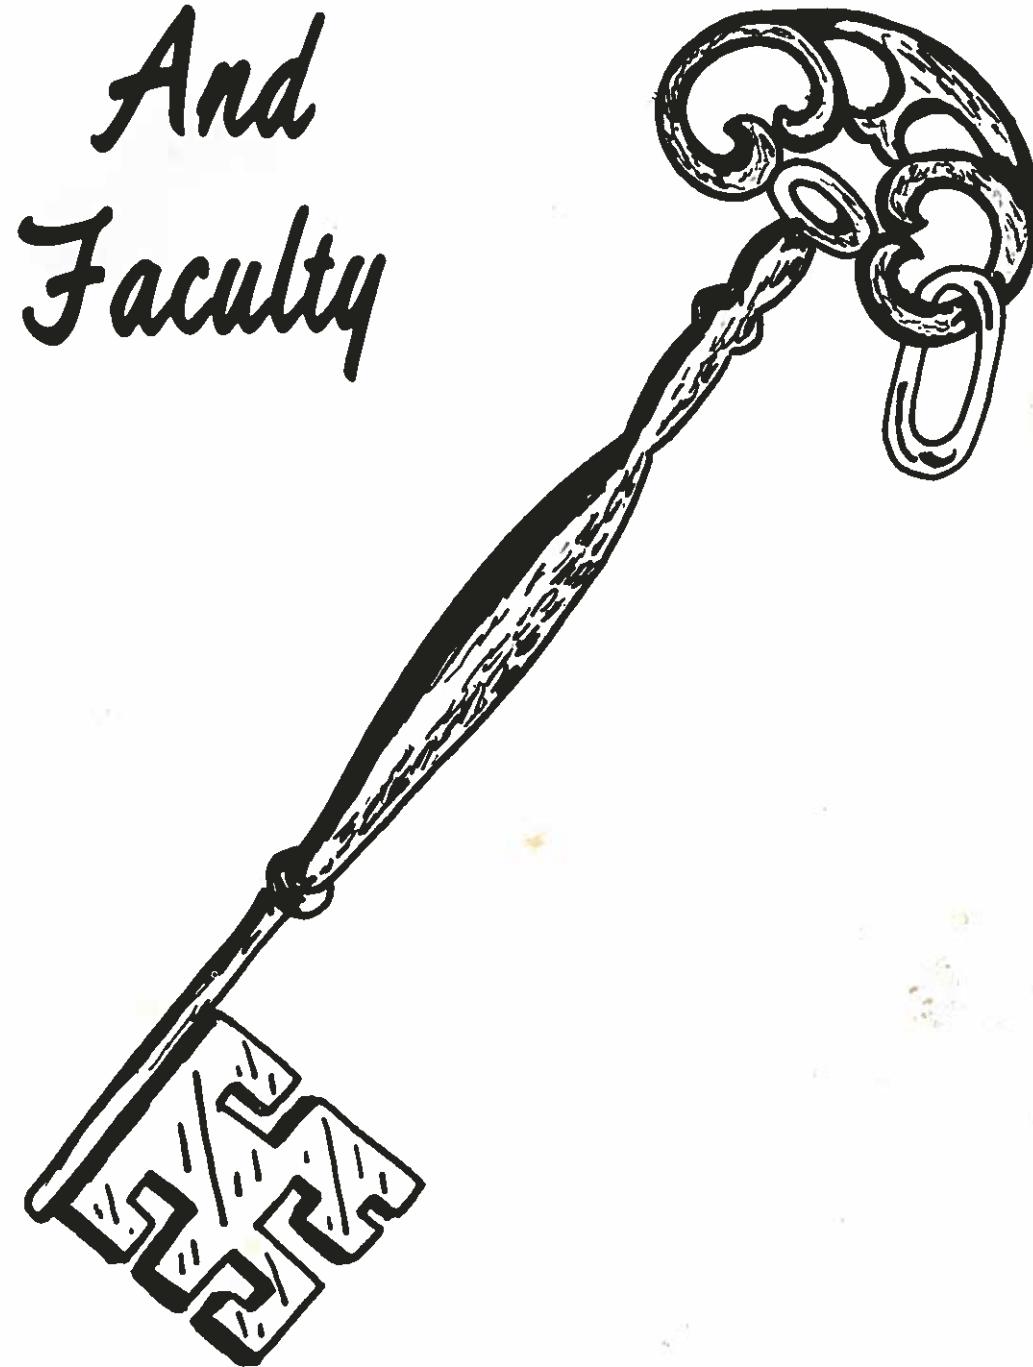

It is impossible for us to put our thanks to you into words. As we stand, approaching the trials of the world after our graduation, we stop and diligently search through our past years. Each of us considers our successes and failures. In doing this, we realize how important it has been that we have had good parents. It has been our parents who have given their ceaseless devotion, have helped us when we stumbled and always have lifted us higher. Through you, we have learned the meaning of love, friendship, helpfulness, and honesty. You have helped us through our infancy, childhood, adolescence, and now, are helping us into adulthood. All the way, you have stood beside us, sharing our sorrows and our joys. Now, as we approach the point at which many of us will go out on our own, we would like to express our most sincere appreciation by dedicating this page of our 1968-69 Eagle to you, our parents.

Administration

... the key to our education

A Message From Our Principal

The opportunities that are available to you in 1969 are greater and more abundant than ever before in the history of our country.

Educational opportunities and job training beyond the high school level are now available to every student at Belvoir-Falkland School. I challenge you to avail yourself to these opportunities.

Strive to succeed in your chosen life's work, and always be thankful and appreciative to those that have helped you prepare for the future—your home, church and school. Success comes to those that work hard and are prepared when opportunities arise. Allow me to share with you the following philosophy: "Live everyday of your life as though it were your last. Work and prepare for the future as though you are going to live forever."

In the years to come you will cherish your experiences and friends gained while at Belvoir-Falkland School. We will continue to follow your careers with keen interest and pride. Within you lie great possibilities. The future of our community, state, and nation depend upon you. We are expecting much of you.

With Best Wishes,

Alston Burke

Mr. And Miss Eagle

Donald Fleming

Lois James

After careful consideration, the members of the annual staff have selected Donald Fleming and Lois James as Mr. and Miss Eagle. Donald and Lois have been chosen because we feel that they have contributed more toward the presentation of the 1968-69 Eagle than any other members of the annual staff. Had it not been for their dedication and sacrifices, along with the co-operation of the other members, we could not have made this yearbook what it is.

"Example is the school of mankind, and they will learn at no other."

Who's Who

Kathy Sue Parker and Steve Scott have been chosen by the seniors to escort them in their graduation activities. They served as mascots at our homecoming activities also.

"Get that rebound" is a familiar phrase to Judy Scott, who is a co-captain of the girls' basketball team this year. She is business manager of the annual staff and has worked diligently in the preparation of the Eagle. She served as an alternate marshal last year.

David Nichols played on the boys' basketball team for three years. He is president of the Student Council Association this year. He is also sports editor for the Eagle.

Lois James and Buddy Teel have served as co-editors of the annual staff this year. Both have maintained membership in the Beta Club for the past three years. Buddy is president of our senior class. Lois has been selected by the members of the annual staff as their "Miss Eagle," because of her diligent work in the preparation of the Eagle. Lois was chief marshal last year and Buddy also served as a marshal.

"Variety is the spice of life," as the old saying goes. The Seniors have certainly had variety this year from the crazy antics of Teresa Harrell and Billy Forbes. Teresa is copy editor of the Eagle this year. She has been on the girls' basketball team for three years, and has been a special asset to the team this year. She is also in the Beta Club and has been a marshal. Billy has played basketball for three years. He is photographer for the Eagle this year.

Delores Stancill and Kenneth Bright have often been called "brains" by their fellow students. The title seems to fit because both have been members of the Beta Club for three years, and both have been marshals. Delores has also played on the girls' basketball team for three years. She is senior editor of the Eagle this year.

Gloria Peaden and James Harris have been selected by the annual staff because of their academic achievements. Gloria and James have both served as marshals and are both members of the Beta Club. Gloria is also art editor for the Eagle this year.

Class History

The first page of the diary of our memories began the day we entered the first grade in 1956-57. Part of us entered Belvoir-Falkland under Miss Oliva Zahnizer. The others went to Falkland Elementary. They were taught by Mrs. Mary Mayo. These first few years were very important in molding our characters and preparing our futures.

Eighth Grade Day was an important event in our lives. On this day, we were introduced to high school. We met the teachers and interviewed the classes. We also met, for the first time, some of the people with whom we would be sharing our years of high school.

Our freshman class, consisting of 72 members, entered high school in the '65-'66 school year. Each of us was filled with anticipation and was eager to get into the swing of high school life. We soon learned to accept ribbing because we were "underclassmen."

Our sophomore year was really the hardest. We made the decisions for our futures that year, and had to decide on a general or academic diploma.

We began our junior year by selling magazines to sponsor our junior-senior. We found much pleasure in working and preparing for it. Our junior-senior was held at the Moose Lodge on April 19, 1968. The theme was Tahitian Holiday, and music was provided by the Esquires from Wilson.

Our long awaited class rings arrived on November 9, 1968. We were very proud of them and would not have taken anything for them.

Our Senior year has been centered around plans for graduation and the preparation of our annual. We can truly say that our years at Belvoir-Falkland High School are ones that none of us will ever forget.

Last Will And Testament

We, the class of 1969, being of sound mind and judgement, doth bequeath this, our last will and testament.

ARTICLE I: We extend our thanks to our teachers who have devoted their time to our interests.

ARTICLE II: We leave the following items to our friends as herein listed:

ARTICLE III: We, the senior class, bequeath to the junior class our seats in the auditorium and hope they will uphold the honor and dignity assigned to them with these seats.

I, Judy Scott, will to Deborah Warren my F.H.A. gavel and my name to Judy Scott.

I, Portia Peaden, leave my cheering suit to Sherry Pollard.

I, David Nichols, leave the Student Council for Donald Fleming to worry about.

I, Larry Harris, will my height to Tommy Jones.

I, Jo Ann Pollard, leave to Erline Corbett my fondness of the name "Fleming".

I, Gerald Corbett, leave my hair style to Mr. Koonce.

I, Billy Forbes, bequeath my smart remarks to Jimmy Harris and all the girls I cannot take with me to Mike Cobb!

I, Gordan Bunting, leave all my SENIOR PRIVILEGES to Clifton Jones.

I, Gloria Peaden, will my quiet ways to the whole student body.

I, Kenneth Bright, will my dark curly hair to Mr. Burke.

We, Buddy Teel and Lois James, leave our places on the annual staff to Donald Fleming and Erline Corbett.

I, Sandra Letchworth, will my height to Connie Brown.

I, E. G. Clark, leave General Business to Mrs. Stokes.

I, Wesley Coward, leave my seat in the principal's office to Tommy Jones.

Now we have added the last link to our chain of memory. In doing so, we stop and reflect on those who have helped us to open the doors to our futures. At this time we should like to express our appreciation to those who have helped most in the preservation of our memories. Without their contributions, the publication of our yearbook would never have been possible.

The annual staff has worked very hard to make this book a complete diary of the 1968-69 school year. We sincerely hope that all the members of the student body will find some memory dear to them within this book.

The annual staff would like to give special recognition to Gloria Peaden who has done most of the lay-out work for our yearbook. We also would like to recognize Linda Peaden and Teresa Harrell who have worked very hard even though they were not officially members of the staff. Linda has served as our typist and has typed most of the copy within this book. Teresa has written all of the special copy and has been a great asset to our yearbook. To our sponsor, Miss Linda Elks, we give special thanks for her diligent efforts to help make possible the best annual that Belvoir-Falkland High School has ever had.
